BOMBAY COURIER
EXTRAORDINARY.

SUNDAY, JUNE 30, 1811.

THIS morning arrived the Milford Captain Learmouth from England and last from the Isle of France.

We have the satisfaction to announce the capture of two French frigates by a squadron consisting of the Astrea, Phœbe, Galatea frigates and Race Horse brig.

The action commenced on the 20th May at 4 P. M. and continued till 7 o'clock.

It was renewed about nine and terminated by the surrender of the Renommeè at about 20 minutes past nine. Her Captain the Senior Officer of the Squadron fell in action and the moment she struck, the other two frigates of the enemy took flight.

The Nereide made for Tamatave Bay where she subsequently surrendered by capitulation.

La Clorinde succeeded in effecting her escape. She was seen however steering a course towards the Sechelles. The President frigate and the Eclipse brig left Port Louis on the 10th June in quest of her at those islands.

BIRTH.

On Wednesday the 26th June, at the house of William Kennedy Esq. the Lady of P. C. Baird Esq. of a daughter.
